

MANIKIN FACE OVERLAY MAN - ARNOLD WIPERS

PRODUCT NUMBER: 2060

DESCRIPTION:

The most realistic and practical silicone face to transform your patient simulator for more engaging simulation training.

They are designed to fit most manikins; this particular face will fit best on the Laerdal Sim Man.

CHARACTERISTICS:

HISTORY

- Arnold is a science teacher at the grammar boys school.
- He is almost 65 and is looking forward to his retirement planning a long vacation with his wife of 30 years.
- 2 weeks ago he had a bit of a scare with his heart and since then he is very apprehensive to do anything demanding.
- His wife is more positive and tells him to keep going. He is not sure what to believe though.

GENERAL:

- Created with a very soft and durable Silicone.
- Eyebrows and sideburns are punched in the silicone for added realism.
- Features might be slightly different that those shown on pictures.
